

Graduate Student Offices and Corridor, MIT Chemical Engineering (Building 66)

Whiteboards and tackboards encourage active use of this corridor by the mix of 56 graduate students and faculty who occupy the new offices on this floor.

This project included renovation of 7,000 sf of space (in a building originally designed by I.M.Pei).

Completed Fall 2002.

